Aims & Scope

International Journal of Society, Culture & Language is an academic journal with a special interest in issues arising at the intersection of intercultural communication, social institutions and processes, and interlingual interactions. The journal is multidisciplinary in nature and international in scope. Its purpose is to encourage scholarship, to enlighten the reader, to stimulate thought and discussion, and to promote appropriate cross-cultural and cross-linguistic communication.

IJSCL publishes papers written in a clear and pedagogic style that respect the interests and needs of readers of several levels of expertise in various countries and disciplines.

IJSCL is published without subscription, two times per year, by Lulu Press. Articles are published online in the form of PDF files that may be freely downloaded.

Articles, book reviews, and short notes published in the IJSCL will deal explicitly with the relevant topics and will be judged by the editorial office as appropriate for publication in the journal on the basis of their scholarship, originality, and relevance.
